God keeps His promises - Childrens talk

Genesis 18:9-15 Promise of Isaac
Genesis 21:1-8 Promise of Isaac fulfilled

Genesis 22:15-18 Abrahams 2 blessings
- Seed multiplied as the Stars of heaven.
  as the Sand which is upon the sea shore.
- "And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed..." speaking of Jesus Christ.

- Stars of heaven, picture on screen, try and count the stars.
- Sand, try and count all the grains of sand.
- How big and wonderful and mighty is our God.

Childrens Chorus. I have a precious book.

Gen 12:3 Promise of all families of the earth being blessed.

... And in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.

- This includes you and me?
  * Abraham was concerned having no child.
  We can be concerned, and talk to God.

Gen 15:5 God asks Abraham to count the stars

... look now toward heaven,
and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them:

∞ And he believed in the LORD...
Believing in promises of God.

We need to be careful not to try and do things our own way.

God reminded Abraham of this promise of a son. Abraham laughed.
Sarah laughed when she heard of this promise.
The LORD said.

Gen 18 14 Is anything too hard for the Lord?

Isaac was born.

Nothing is too hard for God.

God always keeps His promises.
Make sure to know Gods promises.
Read them in the Bible.
Get your mum, dad to show them to you.

Abraham Genesis promises
Isaac

We are going to the start of the Bible this morning.

Who can tell me the name of the first book of the Bible?

In Genesis we learn of God's creation, Adam and Eve, Noah and the ark and the tower of Babel. The Bible is full of real life stories which we can learn from.

We are going to learn of ABRAM. He later becomes ABRAHAM. But at this moment he is ABRAM.

I read in Genesis 12:1

* "Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a Land that I will shew thee:"

Abram was to leave where he was, leave his family.

* God had a plan for Abram.

When God has a plan we should follow it. trust and obey, what God says.

* God then made promises He said
"And I will make of thee a great nation and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:" (V2)

"* And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed." (V3)

God gave Abram promises.

What are promises? I'll give you all one promise.

When I'm finished, I promise I will give you all a sweet!' Sound good?

A promise is someone saying, they will do something later or in the future. Promises can be kept, or broken.

When God makes a promise, He keeps His promises, He never breaks His promises. God always will do what He says He will do.

When God promised Abram.
"all families of the earth be blessed"
That promise was for you and me too!

That promise you will be learning about more and more when God sent His only Son.

God had a plan for Abram
God gave promises to Abram.

But boys and girls Abram had a problem!

Abram had no son of his own.

Abram prayed, he talked with God and shared with God his problem.
God I don't have a child.

God said to Abram look up to the stars. Can you number them?

Have you ever looked up at night, and try to count the stars? There are soo many! Too many to count.
