Sunday AM
Genesis 45:1-15 Joesph
Joesph reveals himself to his brothers.

Think of the shock, horror knowing full well what they had done, standing in front of this important man.

Beautiful picture of forgiveness.

Deliberate act of love, mercy, grace
Decision not to hold something against
Declaring a cancelled debt.

Abuse

Forgiveness, mandatory for believers.
Trust not always the result of forgiveness

Forgiveness directions.
Horizontal Eph 4:32 fellowman
Vertical Col 1:14 God.

Am I refusing to forgive others?
Do I not walk in the reality of the vertical forgiveness? Am I assured of this truth.

Unforgiveness, what does this mean.

we communicate that christ was not enough.
Doing so adds to your sin. refusing Christs gift.
God is not up to the task of being judge over all things. when you don't have faith in the vertical.
Do you think its up to you to judge?
What a burden to carry.
Do you feel that you have to make it up to God? Unbearable.

God word says. Vengence is his,

Scripture seeks to remind us that all is taken care of. All was poured out on Christ.
In Christ, you are forgiven.

Let all horizontal battles go. He is the judge of all and is righteous. you let go
